Academic Integrity

Plagiarism and cheating of any kind will not be tolerated in this course. Consult the following website <http://library.acadiau.ca/guides/plagiarism/student/> over what constitutes cheating/plagiarism and the university policies regarding cheating/plagiarism. The minimum penalty for any student caught cheating/plagiarizing will be expulsion from the class and a zero grade.

Portfolio (Derivatives) Contest

Students must hand in the assignment to the instructor at the beginning of class on the due date. Late submissions will not be accepted. The portfolio grade will be determined by successful completion of the portfolio combined with the performance of your portfolio. Details of the portfolio contest will be sent out early in the term.

Assignments

The assignments are to be done individually, typed or neatly handed written and submitted in printed form – no emailed assignments and due in my hand by 11:30 am on the due date. Get your assignments done early, computer problems do arise but they are not an excuse. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Quizzes

There will be no advance warnings for the quizzes, no make-up quizzes will be written. The quizzes will be brief and based on recent material covered or assigned readings. These quizzes are designed to encourage (coerce is such a strong word) students to keep up with their reading and thereby promote class discussion.

Tests

There will be no make-ups for the tests. If a test is missed, the weight of the missed test will be added to your exam. The final exam will be comprehensive in that it pertains to all material covered in the course.

Exam

The exam will be a comprehensive in nature, covering all material covered in the course.
